RE: Response to request for information
for the Torch Lake Site, Houghton
County, Michigan

Dear Mr. Felitti,

On behalf of Quincy Development Corp. ("Quincy Development"), I am submitting the following response to U.S. EPA's ("the Agency") request for information for the Torch Lake Superfund Site ("the Site") received November 20, 1991. All of the information contained herein was obtained from corporate records and personnel currently employed by Quincy Development.

Quincy Development's sole involvement in the Torch Lake Site is as a current owner of property in or adjacent to the Site. Quincy Development was incorporated in 1986, long after mining operations in the area had ceased. Quincy Development has never carried on any operations at the Site. Quincy Development has never been involved in operations at the Site associated with the chemicals of concern in the Agency's information request. Based on those facts, Quincy Development hereby responds as follows:

Quincy Development hereby responds as follows:

- Request 1. No, Quincy Development has not carried on any operations at or near the Site which used arsenic.
- Request 2. Not applicable.
- Request 3. Not applicable.
- Request 4. No, Quincy Development has not carried on any operations at or near the Site which used cyanide.
- Request 5. Not applicable.
